

Objects of Virtú / Thursday, 16th March 2023 / Lot 2431

LOT 2431

British School - a pair of late 18th/early 19th century pastels on paper portrait miniatures, depicting profiles of a lady and gentleman, 13cm x 11cm, within gilt metal frames, indistinct inscription to reverse.

Provenance: the property of Michael Godfrey.

Estimate: £50 - £80

Condition Report

2431. Overall in good condition with minor condition issues commensurate with age. Some minor rubbing to surfaces and with some pastel dust trapped beneath the glass. Some minor foxing slightly more prevalent to the background on the gentleman. No particular signs of fading or age toning.

Frames appear in good condition.

Neither have been examined out of their frames.

Created: Sat, 11th March 2023 10:33