

Collectors' Items, Works of Art and Light Fittings / Thursday, 16th March 2023 / Lot 2512

LOT 2512

A mid-Victorian coromandel and brass bound vanity case by W. Leuchars, London, the hinged lid and partially fitted interior bearing a monogram over a crown, the fall front revealing two drawers, one enclosing various accoutrements, width 31cm. Provenance: the property of Michael Godfrey.

Estimate: £100 - £150

Condition Report

2512 - Two very small thin splits to top and a dent to the rear corner of the brass edge. The interior is missing some items but all fairly clear.

Created: Sat, 11th March 2023 11:29