LOT 1110

A set of fifteen Chinese Canton famille rose porcelain coffee cups and saucers, mid-19th century, each piece painted with a figural scene within a gilt ground border filled with flowers, fruits and butterflies, height of each cup 6.1cm (minor faults).

Estimate: £300 - £500

Condition Report

1110 - 13 x cups and saucers - in generally good condition with no chips, cracks or restoration. Typical light wear to enamels and gilt, more pronounced on rims.

2 x cups and saucers - each with a hairline to rim and a very small rim chip to both saucers. Otherwise similar condition to above.

Please note the variation of panels to the back of each cup surrounding the handles. One has peach/apricot coloured surround, but the rest have a variation of blue striped and white surrounds. All of these other surrounds have an uneven and not particularly attractive blotchy glaze. This is not damage, overpainting or restoration, it is in the manufacture.
