LOT 1139

A Chinese two-colour Yixing stoneware teapot and cover, early 20th century, in the form of a walnut, impressed mark to base, height 7cm, together with a Japanese bronze pot of coopered barrel form, a pair of Chinese pewter caddies and covers and a Chinese Guan-type crackle glazed stoneware censer of square form, height 4.3cm. Provenance: the property of a West Sussex private collector.

Estimate: £50 - £100

Condition Report

1139 - Walnut shaped teapot in generally good condition. Tiny chip to rim but of no real significance. Few minor surface scuffs and wear, would benefit from a clean.

Japanese coopered bronze pot - Typical surface scratches, wear and discolouration but otherwise ok.

Guan-type censer - Good condition, no chips, cracks or repairs.

2 x pewter caddies - Both with dents and wear. Typical scratches and misshaping.

Soapstone seal - Minor nicks and chips to Buddhistic lion and edges, otherwise ok.

No natural light images available for this Lot.
