

Jewellery / Wednesday, 19th April 2023 / Lot 510

LOT 510

A gold expanding bracelet, circa 1910, designed as a coiled snake with green paste set eyes, detailed '9ct', weight 12.7g, unexpanded inside diameter 3.7cm, with a box.

Estimate: £100 - £150

---

Condition Report

Slight surface wear to the green gem set eyes, the construction is likely to be fitted with an internal base metal coiled spring, otherwise very slight distortion with minor loss of the external gold scales - probably as a result of attaching to the material of garments.

Created: Wed, 12th April 2023 15:23