

Silver and Plate / Wednesday, 19th April 2023 / Lot 337

LOT 337

A small group of Chinese silver, comprising a mustard and matching salt of lobed circular form, a pair of oval salts on scroll legs and a pot decorated with prunus, all by Wang Hing of Hong Kong, total weight 156.4g, together with a silver and cloisonné three-piece condiment set, decorated with prunus and birds, comprising salt, pepper caster and mustard (lacking cover), a finger guard and a condiment spoon.

Estimate: £60 - £100

Condition Report

PLEASE NOTE - this report is only for the three-piece silver and cloisonné condiment set. If you require the condition of the other items, please request this.

337. Enamelled barrel shaped mustard - small dent to one side, minor enamel loss and some minor hairlines. Looks like it may have originally had a hinge lid mounted to the horizontal line around neck.

Pepper - generally ok, cover screws in tightly. Typical surface wear, minor enamel loss and some minor hairlines. Footrim with small dent and minor misshaping.

Salt - generally ok with typical surface wear. Minor enamel loss and some hairlines to enamel. No significant damage or repairs.

Total weight of three enamel condiments 66g.

Created: Fri, 14th April 2023 14:44