

Silver and Plate / Wednesday, 17th May 2023 / Lot 392

LOT 392

A late Victorian silver mounted cut glass carafe, the ribbed ovoid body and cylindrical neck cut with stems of daisies beneath a silver collar and hinged lid, Birmingham 1892 by Hukin & Heath, height 34.5cm.

Estimate: £50 - £80

Condition Report

392. Overall in good condition. Silver collar fits well although has a couple of very small dents. The glass is in good condition. No obvious chips or cloudiness.

Created: Wed, 10th May 2023 12:46