

Silver and Plate / Wednesday, 17th May 2023 / Lot 469

LOT 469

A George V Scottish canteen of plated Old English pattern cutlery, comprising eighteen tablespoons and forks, eighteen dessert spoons and forks, eighteen table and dessert knives with faux ivory handles, twelve teaspoons, twelve egg spoons, four salt spoons, two mustard spoons, soup ladle, gravy spoons, two sauce ladles, two carving knives and forks and a steel with faux ivory handles, by James R. & William Laing of Glasgow, within a mahogany two-drawer canteen case.

Estimate: £150 - £250

Condition Report

469. Overall in good condition with minor tarnishing and wear. Engraving is the letter 'h'. Canteen width 52cm, depth 38cm, height 24.5cm.

Created: Wed, 10th May 2023 12:57