

Silver and Plate / Wednesday, 17th May 2023 / Lot 445

LOT 445

An Elizabeth II Aurum silver commemorative goblet, the flared bowl above an oak and acorn pierced openwork stem enclosing two gilt ponies, commemorating the 900th Anniversary of the New Forest, London 1979 by Hector Miller, weight 364.6g, height 16.5cm.

Estimate: £200 - £400

Condition Report

445. Overall in good condition, several tiny dents to the rim but barely visible.

Created: Wed, 10th May 2023 12:58