LOT 4248

A rare mid-19th century Woodward's Patent .30 over-and-under swivel-barrel pocket pistol, serial number 129, with sighted double barrels, barrel length 57cm, border line-engraved silver-plated locks, detailed 'Woodward's, Regd Feb 4 1863, No 129', pull-back safety and chequer-carved walnut grips.

Estimate: £250 - £350

Condition Report

4248. Overall the gun looks clean. Fair amount of blueing remaining overall. Action on barrel appears a bit slack during revolution. We cannot give detailed condition on chambers and rifling, but it looks as if the gun has not been used very much, barrels look clean. Hammer/trigger action works nice and tight, sliding safety again works and sits tight. This is a gun which looks like it has been stored away for a long time.
