LOT 505

A Cartier 18ct gold, emerald and enamelled jabot pin, designed as a pair of chicks emerging from eggs, detailed 'Cartier', London 1957, weight 8.3g, width 4.4cm. Note: originally purchased from S.J. Phillips Ltd, 139 New Bond Street, London.

Estimate: £400 - £600

Condition Report

There is a slight scratch to the side of the white enamel on one egg, this is noticeable without magnification. The pin is slightly bent in the middle, this does not prevent the pin from opening and the piece being used as intended.

Otherwise in generally good condition.

The current owner purchased this piece from S.J. Phillips Ltd and it comes with a copy of an insurance document produced around the time of purchase at the firm.
