

British and Continental Ceramics / Thursday, 25th May 2023 / Lot 1527

LOT 1527

Seven Bunnykins figures, comprising Juliet, Romeo, Betsy Ross, No. 311 of 2000, Robin Hood, Maid Marion, Little John and Eskimo, each boxed, together with three Coalport figures, a Wade Lady Blow-Up figure, a Lladro polar bear and a pair of Minton dolphint and cherub sweetmeat stands (faults).

Estimate: £50 - £80

Condition Report

Bunnykins, Wade dog and Lladro bear all in good condition overall with no cracks, chips or restoration. The Coalport figures Margaret and Angelique are both badly cracked, the Coalport figure Regina has haircracks.

Two Minton sweetmeat stands - the shell top of the first is broken into 4 pieces and visibly rivet repaired, all the pieces seem to be present apart from small losses along the break lines. The second has a bad crack and small chips to the top shell and is missing part of the dolphint's tail.

Created: Fri, 19th May 2023 09:51