

British and Continental Ceramics / Thursday, 25th May 2023 / Lot 1516

LOT 1516

A collection of twelve studio pottery birds, insect and animal studies by the ornithologist Cicely Lushington, including two flycatchers on a branch, a pair of partridges, a blue tit, a fledgling flycatcher on a branch, a red squirrel, two hawk moths and a dormouse, each with incised 'CL' monogram and title to base, height of red squirrel 10.5cm.

Estimate: £80 - £120

Condition Report

Two birds on a branch - larger bird missing section of tail tip, missing end of one branch which forms part of the base.

Otherwise the studies are all in good condition.

Created: Fri, 19th May 2023 11:26