

British and Continental Ceramics / Thursday, 25th May 2023 / Lot 1408

LOT 1408

A Worcester cos leaf moulded sauceboat, circa 1755, with green enamelled detail and scattered flowers and insects, black painted workman's mark to base, length 18.5cm (minor restoration to rim).
Provenance: the property of Michael Godfrey.

Estimate: £80 - £120

Condition Report

Small area of professional restoration to rim edge by handle - primarily to the interior - approx 1 by 2cm.
Otherwise in good condition overall with very light surface wear/scratches.

Created: Fri, 19th May 2023 12:41