

British and Continental Ceramics / Thursday, 25th May 2023 / Lot 1403

LOT 1403

A Worcester teabowl and saucer, circa 1770, painted with famille rose flowers within an iron red and gilt chain rim, diameter of saucer 12.3cm, saucer with applied paper label detailed 'KING COLLECTION' and inscribed '662', together with a teabowl painted with purple flowers beneath a blue oval band to the inner rim, blue painted open crescent mark to base. Provenance: the property of Michael Godfrey.

Estimate: £80 - £120

Condition Report

Each piece in good condition overall with no cracks, chips or restoration.

There is a tiny spot to the rim of the saucer and matching teabowl where the enamel is missing - probably a manufacturing issue and only noticeable on close inspection.

Created: Fri, 19th May 2023 12:47