

British and Continental Ceramics / Thursday, 25th May 2023 / Lot 1416

LOT 1416

A Worcester Dalhousie type teapot and cover, circa 1785, of fluted barrel form, painted with circular landscape panels within turquoise and gilt frames, flanked by flowers and insects, blue painted open crescent mark to base, height 12.5cm (badly cracked), together with a similarly painted Worcester teabowl, blue painted open crescent mark to base (cracked). Provenance: the property of Michael Godfrey. Underside of the teapot cover bears applied paper label detailed 'Art Treasures Exhibition, Wrexham, 1876'.

Estimate: £70 - £100

Condition Report

Teapot - main body of teapot badly cracked, cover of teapot quite badly chipped around edge and with chipping to floral knob. Please see the images on our website using the zoom function.

Teabowl - U-shaped section of teabowl side (approx one fifth of body overall) broken out and restored back, in addition there is a crack running from the middle of the base to the rim - there is some restoration along the line of this crack.

Created: Fri, 19th May 2023 12:56