LOT 1430

A Worcester hexagonal teapot stand, circa 1770-75, painted in Mandarin style with the Conjuror pattern, beneath a red and gilt dagger border to the rim, length 14.5cm. Provenance: the property of Michael Godfrey.

Estimate: £120 - £180

Condition Report

In good condition overall with no cracks, chips or restoration.

There is some minor surface wear to the enamels of the table near the seated figure, and the blue enamel details are misfired.
