

British and Continental Ceramics / Thursday, 25th May 2023 / Lot 1423

LOT 1423

A Worcester teabowl and saucer, circa 1765, painted in the Harvest Bug pattern beneath an iron red crowsfoot border to the rim, diameter of saucer 11.8cm, together with two similar coffee cups, a coffee cup painted with Imari style flowers and turquoise foliage and a chinoiserie floral teabowl, fretted square mark to base (minor faults). Provenance: the property of Michael Godfrey. Teabowl and saucer sold Christie's 8th December 1980, Lot 144.

Estimate: £100 - £150

Condition Report

Harvest Bug teabowl and saucer - in good condition overall, typical light surface wear/scratches.

Harvest Bug coffee cups - first with haircrack running from top rim to footrim, second with two minor spots of restoration to the top rim edge.

Imari coffee cup - minute nicks to top rim edge, small haircrack to footrim.

Chinoiserie teabowl - in good condition overall, light wear to gilding.

Created: Fri, 19th May 2023 13:06