

British and Continental Ceramics / Thursday, 25th May 2023 / Lot 1676

LOT 1676

A John Rose & Co Coalport part dessert service, circa 1847, painted with central floral bouquets within pink ground rims edged with gilt foliate scrollwork beneath tied ribbon rims, comprising two comports, two low stands and six plates, diameter 23.5cm, impressed diamond registration lozenges to bases.

Estimate: £50 - £80

Condition Report

Each piece in generally good condition overall with no cracks, chips or restoration. There are some typical light surface scratches/wear and minimal rubbing to the gilding.

Created: Mon, 22nd May 2023 10:55