

British and Continental Ceramics / Thursday, 25th May 2023 / Lot 1711

LOT 1711

A Royal Copenhagen flared circular bowl, circa 1938, decorated with a huntsman on horseback, diameter 30cm, a Copenhagen soup plate with orange and gilt decoration, a Meissen plate painted with scattered flowers and insects, diameter 22cm, a pair of Sèvres style soup plates and a Copenhagen inkwell, various underglaze blue, printed and painted marks (minor faults).

Estimate: £40 - £60

Condition Report

Meissen plate - approx 0.5cm square flat chip to upper rim edge, otherwise ok.

Pair Sevres style plates - gilt rim edges rubbed.

Inkwell - sizable chip to rim edge.

Remaining items in good condition overall with no cracks, chips or restoration.

Created: Mon, 22nd May 2023 11:07