

British and Continental Ceramics / Thursday, 25th May 2023 / Lot 1654

LOT 1654

Two Rye Pottery Chaucer figures from The Canterbury Tales, comprising The Parson and The Skipper, height 23cm, together with a small group of Staffordshire pottery figures and groups (faults and restoration).

Estimate: £40 - £60

---

Condition Report

Both of the Rye figures are in good condition overall with no cracks, chips or restoration.

Of the Staffordshire figures Dick Turpin, the woman with a sheep and the pair of figures flanking a clockface surmounted by a bird are each in good condition overall. The other Staffordshire pieces have faults and/or restoration to varying degrees.

Created: Mon, 22nd May 2023 14:00