

British and Continental Ceramics / Thursday, 25th May 2023 / Lot 1478

LOT 1478

A Bevington & Co Swansea blue printed plate, circa 1820, with a version of the Monopteros pattern, diameter 35cm, together with a small group of other blue printed plates, comprising an unusual pair of soup plates in the Basket of Flowers pattern, each inscribed 'D.J. Scott' to the edge of the cavetto, diameter 24.5cm, three British Flowers shaped rim plates, four Corinthian soup plates and a Zebra pattern plate, probably Toft & May, diameter 24cm. Provenance: the property of Donald Church.

Estimate: £70 - £100

Condition Report

Monopteros pattern - in good condition overall with no cracks, chips or restoration, typical crazing.

Basket of Flowers pattern - one with three restored chips to rim edge, other ok.

3 British Flowers plates - one with haircrack and two small chips to rim edge, only really visible to underside, each heavily crazed.

Four Corinthian plates - two with small chip to footrim, one with small chip to upper rim edge at 3 o'clock.

Zebra plate - in good condition overall.

Created: Tue, 23rd May 2023 12:23