

British and Continental Ceramics / Thursday, 25th May 2023 / Lot 1635

LOT 1635

A near pair of Hadleys Royal Worcester porcelain potpourri jars, pierced covers and inner liners, circa 1915, one painted by A.C. Lewis, the other by A. Shuck, both signed, each Persian style domed cover with pierced finial above pheasants in woodland settings and a pierced foliate rim, the shallow bowl painted with pine cones and branches flanked by two griffin mask and scroll handles, on a circular flared foot, green printed factory mark to bases, one painted 'T.120' above '69 B.67', the other painted 'T.120' above '116:67', height 25cm.

Estimate: £800 - £1,200

Condition Report

1635. One finial damaged with glued repair, otherwise both in good condition with areas of minor wear to the gilding.

Created: Wed, 24th May 2023 10:10