

British and Continental Ceramics / Thursday, 25th May 2023 / Lot 1605

LOT 1605

A Royal Worcester porcelain coffee set, circa 1938, painted by Jas. Stinton, signed, comprising six cups and saucers, painted with teal, woodcock, golden plover, ptarmigan, mallard and pheasant, black printed factory mark, black painted titles and iron red pattern number 'Z1830' to bases, height of cup 5.2cm, with six silver gilt coffee spoons, Sheffield 1939 by Mappin & Webb, within a fitted case.

Estimate: £800 - £1,200

Condition Report

1605. One saucer has been cracked in half and restored. The restored saucer, one other saucer and two cups have obvious crazing. Very minor age related wear.

Created: Wed, 24th May 2023 12:58