

British and Continental Ceramics / Thursday, 25th May 2023 / Lot 1601

LOT 1601

A near pair of Royal Worcester porcelain trumpet vases, circa 1920, painted by George Johnson, signed, each flared cylindrical body with a crane standing in a pool within a desert landscape with rocks and palm trees, green printed factory marks including shape number 'G923' to bases, heights 11.4cm and 11.7cm.

Estimate: £1,200 - £1,600

Condition Report

1601. Overall good condition, but would benefit from a clean to the exterior.

Created: Wed, 24th May 2023 12:59