

British and Continental Ceramics / Thursday, 25th May 2023 / Lot 1600

LOT 1600

A Royal Worcester porcelain vase, circa 1910, painted by William Powell, signed, the ovoid body with a desert scene of two cranes wading in a pool between rocks and palm trees, beneath a gilt flared neck, on a circular gilt foot, green printed factory mark to base, height 17.1cm.

Estimate: £500 - £700

Condition Report

1600. Overall good condition, would benefit from a clean to the exterior.

Created: Wed, 24th May 2023 13:00