

British and Continental Ceramics / Thursday, 25th May 2023 / Lot 1501

LOT 1501

Five pieces of Royal Worcester blush ivory, comprising a lobed jar with pierced cover painted with roses, circa 1922, height 11cm (restoration to cover), a flatback jug, decorated after Raby, a two-handled vase (foot glued), a Ball jug and a flower pot, together with a Grainger & Co jug with pierced neck.

Estimate: £50 - £100

---

Condition Report

1501. Condition is as per the catalogue description, with age related wear to all pieces in places.

Created: Wed, 24th May 2023 13:02