LOT 1021

A pair of Chinese Canton famille rose porcelain hexagonal planters and stands, mid-19th century, each planter of flared form, painted with a continuous figural scene beneath a rim of butterflies, fruit and flowers, each stand with similarly decorated rim, well and sides, total height 15.7cm (one planter and stand repaired).

Estimate: £500 - £700

Condition Report

1021. Planter 1 - good condition, no significant damage or repairs. No cracks, chips or repairs. Some wear to enamels and gilt, but colours are bright and vibrant. Some enamel loss, more pronounced on the blue enamel to ladies dresses.

Stand 1 - Good condition, no chips, cracks or repairs. Some wear to gilt and enamels particularly where the feet of the planter have sat in the well.

Planter 2 - one corner of rim (approx 6cm) has been broken and professionally repaired, otherwise generally good condition. Typical light surface scratches and wear to enamels and gilt.

Stand 2 - the stand has been broken into 3 pieces and professionally restored. Typical wear to enamels and gilt.
