LOT 1060

A Chinese Canton famille rose urn and cover, early 19th century, of neoclassical urn form, painted and gilt with views of courtesans on terraces and in pavilions, each side with a similarly decorated moulded oval medallion, flanked by a pair of gilt and pink upright foliate handles, the domed cover with maiden finial, height 40cm (some faults and restoration).

Estimate: £400 - £600

Condition Report

1060. Figural finial is missing head and left hand. Rim of cover has been broken and rivet repaired with some overpainting and further restoration to other side of rim.

Body of urn is in good condition with good vibrant colours and gilt. Typical light surface scratches and wear.

Both handles with chipped pink petals and wear to gilt.

The short stem has been restored and overpainted.

The square foot has a star crack to the base, otherwise ok, but does not sit perfectly flat (it rocks everso slightly).
