

Asian and Islamic Ceramics and Works of Art / Thursday, 8th June 2023 / Lot 1150

LOT 1150

An impressive Chinese flambé glazed porcelain moonflask, mark of Qianlong but possibly later Qing dynasty, the swollen circular body with onion mouth and cylindrical neck, flanked by a pair of scroll handles with ruyi-head moulded terminals, above a pair of opposing relief moulded boss to each side, on a rounded oblong foot, each side and foot covered in a purple and pale blue streaky glaze, the neck and sides predominantly pale blue with purple streaks, impressed Qianlong seal mark to base, height 40.6cm.

Estimate: £1,500 - £2,500

Condition Report

1150. Good condition with no significant damage or repairs. Typical light surface scratches and wear to glaze with slightly more pronounced scratches to either side. Typical light crazing to glaze. Minor nicks to glaze at footrim. Please also note, the vase leans forward/backwards ever so slightly.

Created: Mon, 5th June 2023 16:02