LOT 1160

A Chinese soapstone figure of Guanyin, probably Kangxi period, finely carved in a seated pose, holding a scroll in her left hand and bead necklace in her right, her long robes with incised decoration and heightened in gilt, with traces of red and green pigment, the green quatrelobed base with incised and gilt decoration, height 15.3cm.

Estimate: £2,500 - £3,500

Condition Report

1160. The figure appears to be in generally good condition, however there seems to be some professional restoration where the head has been damaged at the neck and subsequently restored, this is not obviously noticeable but becomes apparent on closer inspection. Otherwise typical wear to gilt and colouring, and typical light surface scratches to stone. Minor scuffs to edges.
