

Furniture / Thursday, 15th June 2023 / Lot 2067

LOT 2067

A 19th century stained pine framed dinner gong, formerly the property of Charles Dickens, the top surface of the frame indistinctly inscribed 'Charles Dickens' flanked by lines of pious verse, height 105cm, width 77cm. Note: this gong is accompanied by a letter of provenance, referring to it's purchase '...at the sale at Gad's Hill in 1870'.

Provenance: from the principal contents of Stone House, Bolney, West Sussex.

Estimate: £300 - £500

---

Condition Report

2067. Overall in good condition. No major damage or repairs, just areas of age related wear. The mallet is a later replacement and the string holding the gong is also later. The writing on top is quite faded and the whold piece would benefit from a professional clean.

Created: Wed, 7th June 2023 12:16