LOT 2636

A late George III mahogany and brass bound apothecary's travelling case, containing glass bottles, mostly retaining original labelling, the drawer enclosing a set of steel scales and a glass pestle and mortar, width 30cm. Provenance: from the principal contents of Stone House, Bolney, West Sussex.

Estimate: £200 - £400

Condition Report

2636. The bottles appear to be original to the box as they fit well. Various labels from different makers. Some replacement labels. Lacking one glass bottle. Most labels appear to be 'Savory & Moore'. Bottom drawer contains six bottles, scales, weights, glass pestal and mortar. Overall in good condition with minor age related wear.
