

Furniture / Thursday, 15th June 2023 / Lot 2015

LOT 2015

An 18th century and later walnut and floral marquetry inlaid kneehole desk, the top with an oval border of oyster veneer, framing central flower-filled urn and birds, the front similarly decorated with inlaid foliage, height 76cm, width 97cm, depth 62cm (alterations).

Provenance: from the principal contents of Stone House, Bolney, West Sussex.

Estimate: £300 - £500

Condition Report

Please request condition report if required.

Additional Information

2015. We feel that while this piece has late 17th/early 18th century elements, including drawers and possibly the top, the carcass has been made-up during the late 19th century.

Created: Fri, 9th June 2023 12:29