

Silver and Plate / Wednesday, 14th June 2023 / Lot 340

LOT 340

An early Victorian silver entrée dish and cover, the shallow dish with cast foliate scroll, flowerhead and scalloped rim, flanked by a pair of shell handles, the lobed dome cover engraved with a stag's head crest beneath a pomegranate, stem and leaf finial, each piece numbered '2', London 1841 by John Mortimer & John Samuel Hunt, the underside stamped 'Mortimer & Hunt' and numbered '751', weight 1850.2g. Provenance: from the principal contents of Stone House, Bolney, West Sussex.

Estimate: £1,000 - £1,500

---

Condition Report

340. Overall good condition with good crisp cast borders. Good crisp engraved crest to cover. Cover fits the base well. Finial in good condition. Typical light surface scratches and wear. Good matching hallmarks (slightly rubbed on side of base, but still perfectly readable). The only damage of any note is a small dent to one side of the cover which has had a small lead repair visible to interior.

Base 39cm x 24cm. Height 18cm.

Created: Mon, 12th June 2023 11:34