

Wristwatches and Pocket Watches / Thursday, 20th July 2023 / Lot 1012

LOT 1012

A Swiss 18ct gold and enamel cased keyless wind open-faced lady's pocket watch, first half 19th century, with unsigned gilt movement, the gold inner case back detailed 'Moulinie Aine & Cie Geneve', the silvered dial with floral engraved centre and black Roman hour numerals, the case back interior detailed '18K', the case back enamelled with polychrome flowers on a black ground, total weight 27g, case diameter 3.5cm (some faults), with winding key. Note: Moulinie Aine & Cie were reputed watchmakers working in Geneva during the first half of the 19th century.

Estimate: £300 - £500

Condition Report

1012. The movement is rusted so the watch does not run. Some chips to enamel around the edge of the case back and central pink flower. Minor enamel loss to front surround. Dial discoloured from the rust. Inner case also gold but not marked. Total weight 27g.

Created: Mon, 17th July 2023 12:39