LOT 1401

A Ridgway moulded porcelain part dessert service, circa 1820-25, pattern No. 892, the cobalt blue ground pieces richly gilt with fruiting vine beneath apricot borders, relief moulded with a diamond trellis pattern and cornucopia edged cartouches, painted with flowers, the pierced handles formed as curled branches, the knobs as roses, comprising three large two-handled footed oval centrepiece bowls, length 35.5cm, two oval two-handled bowls, length 30cm, two sauce tureens and covers with integral bases, four two-handled oval dishes, length 29.5cm, six single-handled circular dishes, length 24cm, and eleven plates, diameter 22cm, together with a matched teapot stand, pattern No. 2/825 (minor faults). Provenance: from the collection of the late Graham and Rhiannon Berridge.

Estimate: £700 - £1,000

Condition Report

1401. Two small hairline cracks to the handles on one of the four oval serving dishes.

No obvious chips, cracks or restoration, but the whole service has areas of obvious wear to the gilding and signs of previous use, including small surface scratches to the centre of some plates.
