

Glassware / Thursday, 3rd August 2023 / Lot 1886

LOT 1886

A Salviati glass stem vase, early 20th century, designed as a crouching swan with bent neck, its tail forming the elongated vase with flared frill rim, in white latticino with aventurine threads, height 24cm, together with a similar pair of goblets with dolphin stems, height 17cm.

Provenance: from the collection of John and Poppy Stallebrass.

Estimate: £100 - £150

Condition Report

One wine goblet has a crack to the tail of the dolphin which is wrapped around the bowl of the goblet. Otherwise each piece in the lot is in good condition overall with no cracks, chips or restoration.

Created: Tue, 25th July 2023 11:48