LOT 1408

A garniture of three English porcelain vases, historically believed to be Ridgway but probably Spode or Davenport, circa 1820-30, each painted with a floral bouquet within gilt overlaid cobalt blue framing against an apricot ground, flanked by gilt winged caryatid handles, red painted pattern No. 115 to bases, height of tallest 25.5cm (minor restoration to stem of one smaller vase). Provenance: from the collection of the late Graham and Rhiannon Berridge.

Estimate: £70 - £100

Condition Report

1408. One of the smaller vases has damage and repair just above the foot at the narrowest point, the other vase of the same size is slightly crooked.

All three have wear to the gilding and general age related wear.
