

British and Continental Ceramics / Thursday, 3rd August 2023 / Lot 1435

LOT 1435

A large impressive Ridgway porcelain two-handled vase and cover, circa 1812, the green ground ovoid body well-painted with a panel of fruit and flowers within a gilt scroll frame, flanked by gilt tigers and foliate scrollworks, opposing a detailed gilt scene of a classical urn, flanked by griffins and elaborate foliate scrollwork, the gilded handles in the form of rams' heads, above lobed moulded detail richly gilt, the neck with gilt fluted detail, the green ground domed cover, circular foot and square base with similar gilt detail, impressed mark to base, height 62cm (some restoration to base). Provenance: from the collection of the late Graham and Rhiannon Berridge. Note: this vase is illustrated by Geoffrey Godden in his book 'Ridgway Porcelains', p.57, pl.50.

Estimate: £400 - £600

Condition Report

1435. One of the horns on the rams' head handles has been professionally restored and the handle is also cracked. There is restoration to the foot and surrounding area. General wear to the gilding and minor age related wear.

Created: Tue, 25th July 2023 15:28