Condition Report

Please see image 2 on our website which shows the marking on the Warff piece. The marking on the tree stump vase can be emailed to you.

Tree stump vase - in fundamentally good condition, the underside is heavily worn and there are a number of tiny nicks to the outer edge of the foot. The outer surface of the body has some scratches.

Sculpture - in good condition overall, there is a minuscule nick to the outer edge of the green/blue part on one side, only noticeable on close inspection. There is a horizontal manufacturing flaw to the middle of the clear base section.
