LOT 1852

A set of nine harlequin flashed hock glasses, the cut ogee bowls on baluster hexagonal stems, height 19cm, together with a set of eight green glass wines, engraved with fruiting vine, height 10cm.

Estimate: £50 - £70

Condition Report

Amber flashed glass with small nick to top inner rim edge.

One of the amethyst tinted glasses with small rough patch to top inner rim edge - I would suggest it could be easily polished out.

One of the cobalt blue tinted glasses with two minuscule nicks to top rim edge - again I would suggest these could be easily polished out.

The engraved glasses are each in good condition.
