LOT 1691

Three Doulton stoneware rectangular spirit flasks, 1880-1891, two decorated by Elizabeth Shelley, the third by Alice Ritchin, each with a fruiting wine border to the shoulders above a mottled brown glaze, impressed marks and incised monograms to bases, height excluding cork 20.5cm.

Estimate: £70 - £100

Condition Report

Gin Bottle - small chip to spout, some manufacturing blemishes to top corners amidst fruiting vine decoration.

Brandy Bottle - in good condition overall with no cracks, chips or restoration.

Bottle detailed 'IW' on the top of the handle - the IW is a bit chipped and there are some minor nicks around the base edge of the bottle.
