LOT 1550

Two Worcester coffee cups, circa 1765, of typical U-shape with grooved loop handles, painted with differing bouquets of Meissen style Deutsche Blumen, an iron red crowsfoot border to each rim interior, height 6.5cm, together with a reeded French shape coffee cup and another, painted in a famille rose palette (minor faults). Provenance: the property of Michael Godfrey.

Estimate: £80 - £120

Condition Report

First two cups - one with minor professionally restored chip to side edge of handle, the other with glazed over manufacturing nibble to top rim edge and some black pitting to glaze.

Reeded cup - crack to handle, tiny nibble to footrim, manufacturer has enamelled a leaf to the top rim edge to disguise a small firing fault.

Other cup - crack to handle, otherwise ok.
