LOT 1557

Two Bow porcelain figures of putti, circa 1760, both garlanded, representing Winter and Spring, standing before bocage, iron red painted marks to bases, height 15cm, together with a pair of Chelsea Derby bocage groups of putti (faults and restoration). Provenance: the property of Michael Godfrey.

Estimate: £80 - £120

Condition Report

Bow winter - fundamentally in good condition overall, some small spots of restoration/loss to the bocage.

Bow spring - some restoration to back stem of bocage and similarly spots of restoration/loss to the bocage and relief flowers in the basket.

Pair bocage groups - overall in good order but with typical losses to the flowers, foliage and bocage, nothing too terrible.
