Colour - J/K

Clarity - VVS2/VS1

The ring shank is marked with a fairly modern hallmark, though omits a date letter, possibly 2010s. However the head of the ring has seen wear. Evidence of wear to the sides where it has likely been worn against other rings and numerous claws have been re-tipped. The diamonds are old cut stones and have been reset into this ring.

One claw is lacking to one side diamond. Slight abrasion to a facet edge on one diamond. Girdles are generally rough with a few nicks/nibbles.
