

Asian and Islamic Ceramics and Works of Art / Thursday, 31st August 2023 / Lot 1149

LOT 1149

A Chinese pale celadon/white jade vase, Qing dynasty, of flattened spade form, the short flared neck flanked by a pair of carved and pierced kui dragon handles, carved in high relief with a pair of cranes flying above clouds and three further cranes below, on a carved and pierced rocky base, from which grows bamboo, flowers and lingzhi fungus, height 13.9cm (lacking cover).

Estimate: £400 - £600

---

Condition Report

1149. Generally good clean condition. Well hollowed and nice quality carving. No significant damage or repairs. Few very minor nicks to rim and highpoints, but nothing of any real significance. Small minor 3mm white hairline inclusion to rim. Minor scuffs and scratches to base. Good uniform colour to stone. No cover or stand. Weight 452g.

Created: Thu, 24th August 2023 15:40