LOT 1022

A Chinese blanc-de-Chine porcelain censer, Kangxi period, of cylindrical form with three horizontal ribs and a faintly impressed keyfret panelled central band, on three ruyi-head scroll feet, height 8.4cm (hairline cracks and repair to one side). Provenance: from the private collection of David Armitage, former conservator to the Department of Eastern Art at the Ashmolean Museum, Oxford, between 1970 and 1999.

Estimate: £100 - £200

Condition Report

1022. Hairline crack running into base and V-shaped section broken and repaired to one side with some obvious overpainting to rim (all visible in images 2, 3, 7 and 8 on our website). Otherwise rest of the body and feet in good order. Typical surface scratches and wear to glaze.
