

Firearms and Edged Weapons / Tue, 5th September 2023 / Lot 3047

LOT 3047

An early 19th century double-barrelled percussion pistol, barrel length 7cm, with engraved foliate locks and shaped bulbous grip with inset white metal heart shaped plaque.

Estimate: £60 - £100

---

Condition Report

3047. Overall clean gun. Some evidence of rust throughout, evidence of old toned cleaning, some rust still active under oil coating. Action nice and tight on both triggers.

Created: Thu, 31st August 2023 13:12