LOT 3681

A Queen Victoria Coronation wooden peg doll with painted features, wearing a gilded crown, earrings, necklace, dress and robe, height 16.5cm, together with six all-bisque doll's house dolls, all clothed, two Frozen Charlotte dolls, a porcelain half-doll within a hinged walnut shell and two Japanese plastic doll's house dolls.

Estimate: £80 - £120

Condition Report

3681. Some paintwear around the ears and on the lower arms, the dress does have some pulls to the material. Jointed at the hips and shoulders, but as the dress is fixed to the body it is difficult to tell if jointed at the elbows.
